THE HILLTOPPER

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
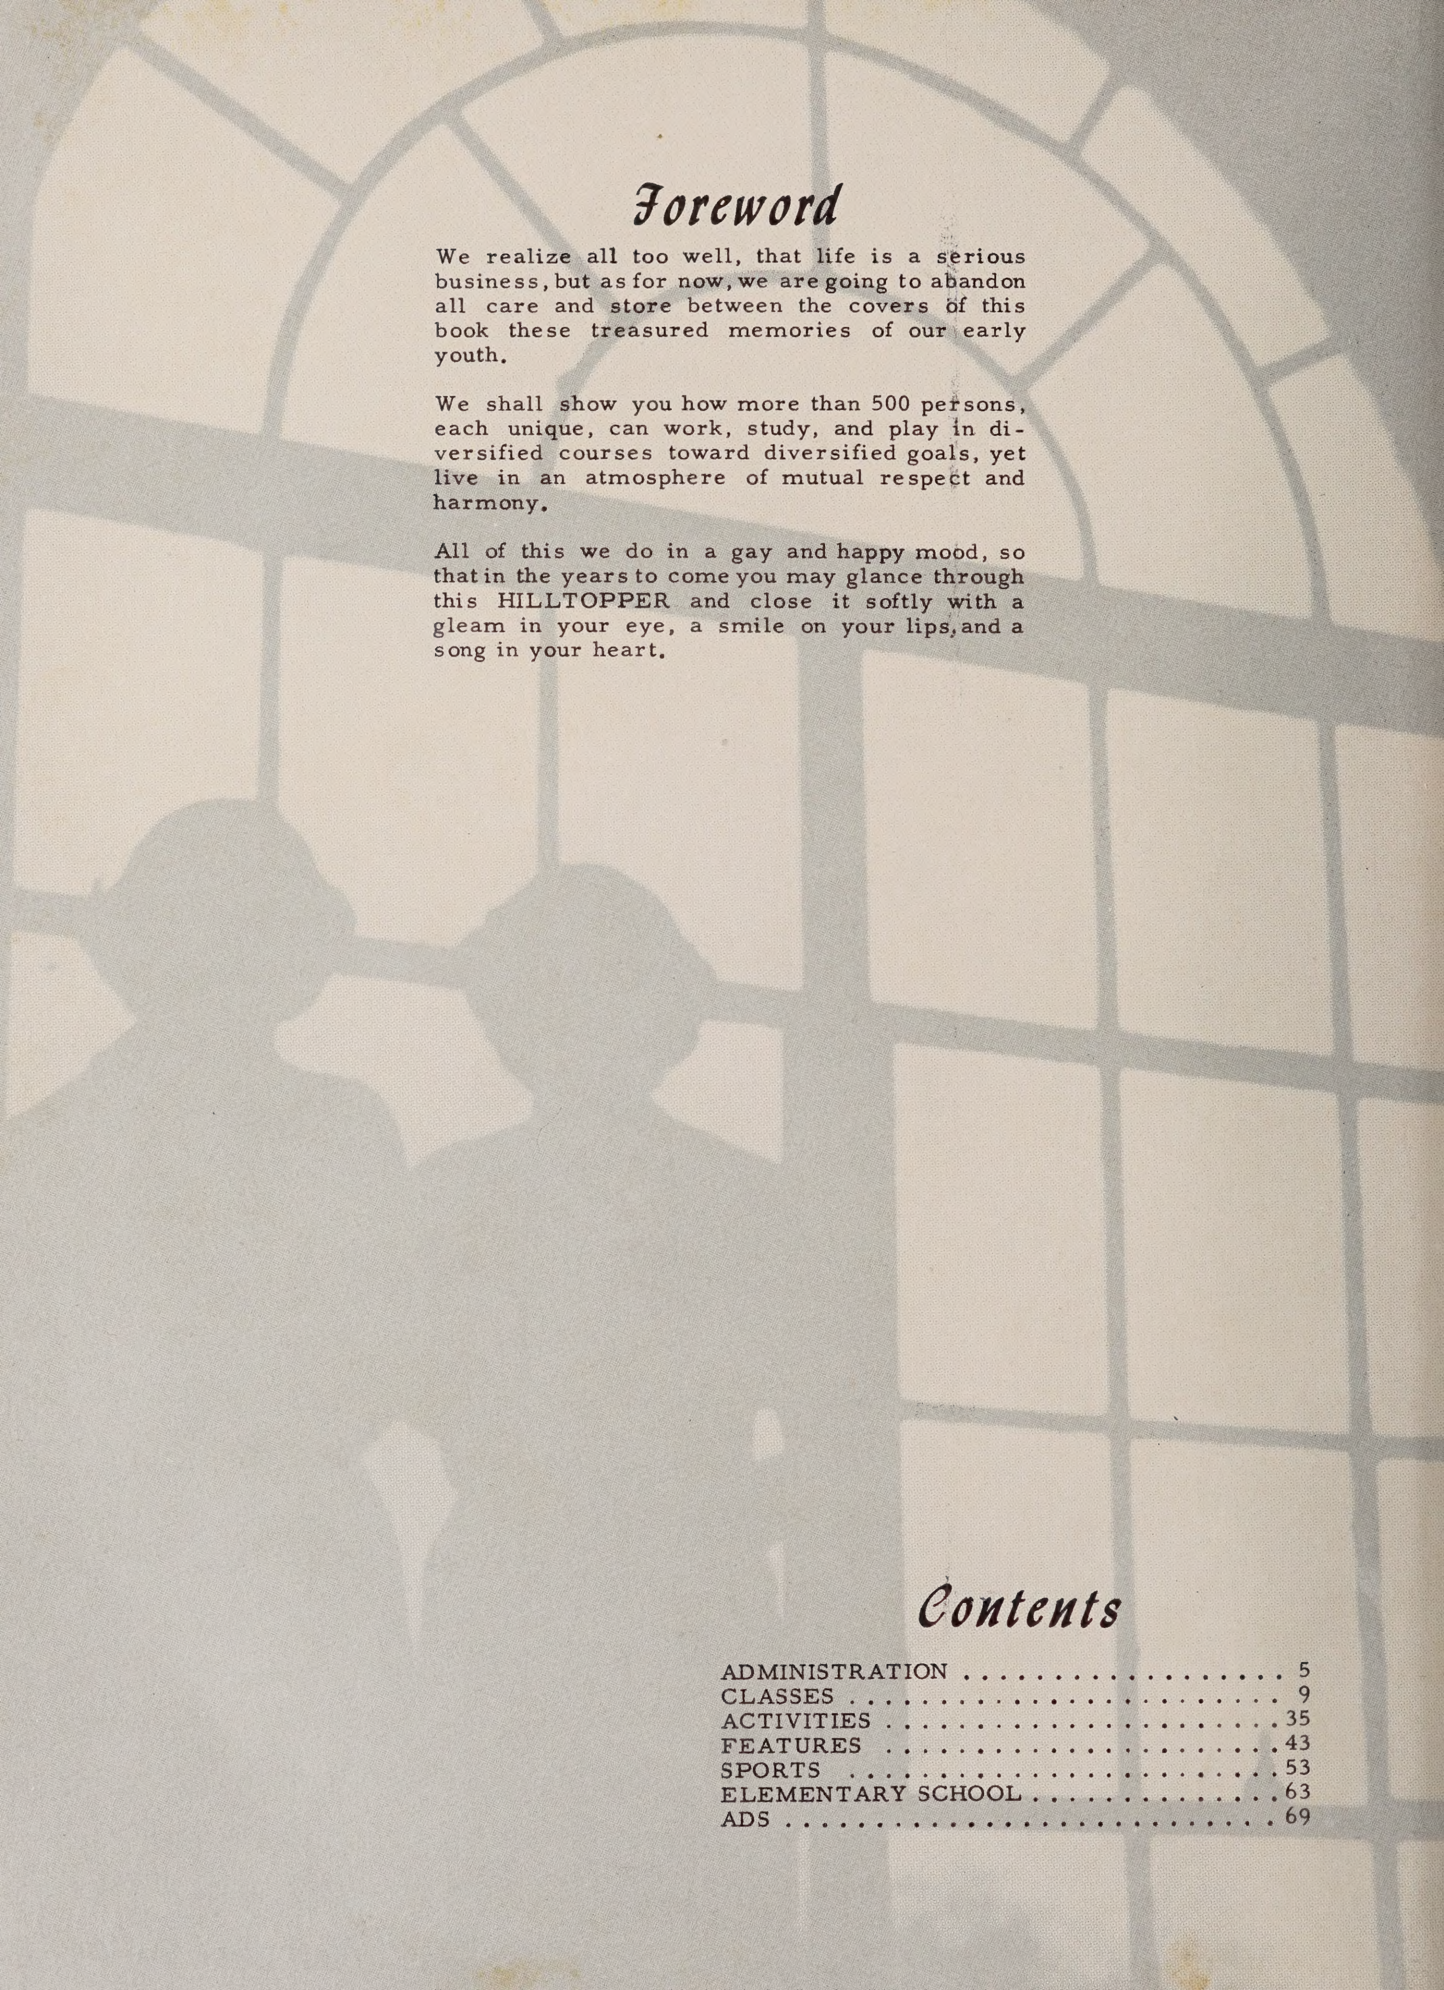
BETHEL HILL HIGH SCHOOL
Woodsdale, North Carolina



Foreword

We realize all too well, that life is a serious business, but as for now, we are going to abandon all care and store between the covers of this book these treasured memories of our early youth.

We shall show you how more than 500 persons, each unique, can work, study, and play in diversified courses toward diversified goals, yet live in an atmosphere of mutual respect and harmony.

All of this we do in a gay and happy mood, so that in the years to come you may glance through this HILLTOPPER and close it softly with a gleam in your eye, a smile on your lips, and a song in your heart.

In Appreciation

To a man whose actions constantly affirm his deeply felt principles;

to one who has given himself for the betterment of Bethel Hill High School;

to one who possesses the ability to guide and advise college-bound students about all fields of future life-time occupations, services and professions;

to one whose qualities of Christian ideals, love for his fellow-man, and his whole-hearted interest in our student body have become an inspiration to us;

to our principal, teacher, and friend;

we express our sincere appreciation and dedicate this, the 1956 "Hilltopper," to

MR. W. C. HOPKINS

FRESHMEN PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Last Will And Testament

I, Karl Ray Gentry, will my grouchiness to Wharton Winstead.

I, Jean Wilborn, will my place as head cheerleader to Barbara Bailey.

I, Katie Yarboro, will my good looks to Dorothy Evans.

I, Bobby Murray, will my ability to play football to Claiborne Hopkins.

I, Ernest Wilson, will my shyness to Huel Howerton.

I, Nancy Woody, will my books to Doris Pulliam and hope she uses them more than I did.

I, Dale Adcock, will the honor of being Homecoming King to John Watts.

I, Dorothy Jones will my basketball suit to anybody it will fit.

I, Amelia Gillis, leave to take music from Liberace.

We, R. B. Wilborn and Raynard Clayton, will our ability to leave school and go to work to Strum Averette.

I, Jasper Puryear, will my three English Books to Jimmy Taylor.

I, Helen Jones, will my stature to Nancy Poindexter.

I, Nancy Tuck, leave my ability to sing to Evelyn Groves.

I, Rachel Lowery, will my ability to being single to Betty Stigall.

I, Joyce Lowery, will my ability to play basketball to Sallie Compton.

I, Shelby Howerton, leave my quietness to Helen Wilson.

I, Shirley Self, will my bangs to Lucretia Pixley.

I, Esther Melton, will all of my boy friends to Barbara Bailey.

I, Wilbur Brann, will my flat top to James Howerton.

I, Libby Gentry, will my French accent to Virginia Swanson.

I, Dora McCarthy, will my algebra book to Geneva Dunman.

I, Hilda Melton, will my initiativeness to Edna Carver.

Last Will And Testament

I, John Shotwell, will my position as captain in basketball to Ryland Poole.

I, Alice Lowery, leave to take voice lessons from Doris Day.

I, Alice Pentecost, leave my sweet voice to Cordelia Stigall.

I, Wesley Long, leave all the girls weeping.

I, Billy Riley, leave all my girl friends to C. H. Puryear.

I, Marvin Self, leave my chewing gum to Eugene Jeffrey.

I, Stanley Zimmerman, will my ability to be teacher's pet to John Watts.

I, Rennis Puryear, leave my jalopy to anyone who owns a Cadillac but wants a better car.

I, Becky Mooney, will when I have time.

I, Jane Gentry, leave without a man, but I still have hopes.

I, Shirley Hawkins, will my ability to blush to Marjorie Boyd.

I, Alvin Whitlow, leave gladly.

I, Peggy Carver, leave content with Eugene Jeffrey.

We, Edna Jones and Alma Melton, leave all the boys weeping.

I, Norma Carver, leave to take Emogene Coca's place on T. V.

I, Ruth Duncan, leave laughing at high school and the world.

I, Bobby Long, will my neatness to Bob Irby.

I, Relia Hicks, will my red hair to whoever wants it.

I, Annie Belle Nelson, leave B. H. H. S. (I hope.)

I, Marie Zimmerman, will my sweet disposition to Varris Duncan.

This same given out of our hand and unsealed by us this merry month of May, 1956.
